

Hon. Andrew Baasaron

Minister of Economic Affairs, Entrepreneurship & Technological Innovation –
Republic of Suriname

Before serving his nation in this strategic governmental role, Minister Baasaron built a successful business career in the private sector. Today he brings a unique perspective that combines entrepreneurial experience, public leadership, Kingdom values, and family stewardship.

A committed elder in his local church and a dedicated husband and family man, Minister Baasaron demonstrates that it is possible to pursue business success, spiritual integrity, and national service simultaneously.
